

NFDB Funded Training Programme on “Carp culture and It’s Disease management” from 9 to 11 October, 2018

Regional research centre of ICAR-Central Institute of freshwater Aquaculture (RRC of ICAR-CIFA) in collaboration with State Fisheries Department, Punjab organised a 3 days NFDB Funded Training Programme on “Carp culture and It’s Disease management” from 9 to 11 October, 2018. In this training programme 50 farmers from different districts i.e. Bathinda, Mansa, Faridkot, Shri Muktsar Sahib and Barnala participated. The programme was inaugurated by Dr. Madan Mohan, Director, Department of Fisheries, Punjab. Dr Mukesh Kumar Bairwa, Scientist In-Charge and Mr Arunjyoti Baruah, Course Directors of the training programme managed the programme very well with help of state department of fisheries Punjab. The Assistant Director of Fisheries from different districts i.e. Mr Sukhwinder Singh, ADF, Mansa, Mr Rakesh Kumar, ADF, Sangrur, Mr Karamjeet Singh, CEO, Fatehgarh Sahib and Mr Karan Singh ADF, Bathinda along with Scientists of ICAR-CIFA delivered lectures during this training programme. A field visit to progressive farmer’s farm (Mr Amrit Pal Singh at Ramnagar) was also conducted on 10.10.18 for demonstration of the carp culture practice. Mr Karan Singh ADF, Bathinda supported to conduct field visit. The Official from State department of Fishries, Bathinda (Mr Karan Singh ADF, Mrs Sheenam Jindal, Fishries Officer and Mr Ranjeet Singh, Field Assistant Fisheries) helped to organize the training programme.

