

ICAR-CIFA in Collaboration with State Fisheries Department Conducted Training Programmes in Tribal Villages of Ganjam District, Odisha

ICAR-Central Institute of Freshwater Aquaculture, Bhubaneswar under its DST (TSP) Project (Carp seed production and integrated fish farming technology for livelihood development of Phailin affected tribal farmers of Ganjam District, Odisha)

Odisha during 13-16 August, 2018. Around 120 tribal beneficiaries with 80% ladies took part in the programme. The main objectives of the training programme were to make aware of the tribal fish farmers to FRP carp hatchery operation for seed production; brood fish selection; and in collaboration with State Fisheries Department, Ganjam Zone conducted Training Programmes on FRP Carp Hatchery Operation in Ambapur Village of Digapahandi Block and Daseipur Village of Sanakhemundi Block, Ganjam District, administration of inducing agents to fish; spawn collection; etc. Dr. B.C. Mohapatra, Principal Investigator of DST Project and Principal Scientist, ICAR-CIFA, Bhubaneswar and Mr. N.K. Maharana, AFO, Digapahani Block coordinated this 4-days training programmes.