

ICAR-CIFA RRC, Rahara conducted training programme for the Officers of Tata Steel Foundation

ICAR-CIFA, RRC, Rahara conducted a training programme on 'Aquaculture Practices and Integrated Farming System for optimal Farm Production' during July 12-16, 2022 for the officers of Tata Steel Foundation Jamshedpur, Jharkhand. Total Participants were 16 (Male 12 and Female 4). The programme was inaugurated by Dr.S.Adhikari, SIC RRC, Rahara and he also welcomed the trainees. They were exposed of Farm facilities of Rahara nad Kalyani Field station. The training programme covered both Theory and Practical. In theory the lectures covered on general practices of Aquaculture, water quality management, Breeding and seed production of indigenous catfishes, Nursery Pond Management, Composite fish culture, farm made feed, Live fish food organisms, Integrated fish-cum high value agri-horticulture, Paddy-cum fish culture and Health care of fish. In practical they were exposed to Induced breeding of Fish and the trainees injected hormone to Catla for its breeding, further the spawn was released in Nursery pond in presence of the trainees. One day the trainees had one day exposure visit to Kalyani Field station. The trainees completed the training successfully. The valedictory programme was held on 16.07.22 and certificates were distributed. The trainees expressed their happiness and satisfaction after completion of the training. The training programme was coordinated by Dr. B.N.Paul, Mr.A.Das, Dr.F.Hoque and Mr. A. Hussan.

