

ICAR CIFA signed MoU with OUAT, Bhubaneswar for collaborative Research

A Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) was signed between ICAR-CIFA, Bhubaneswar and Orissa University of Agriculture and Technology for collaborative research by sharing of laboratory and other infrastructural facilities. Ten other Institutes namely Indian Institute of Water Management, Bhubaneswar ; National Rice Research Institute, Cuttack; Central Institute of Women in Agriculture; Regional Centre of the Central Tuber Crops Research Institute; Regional stations of Indian Institute of Horticultural research; National Institute of Foot and Mouth Diseases; Regional station of Directorate of Poultry Research; Regional Centre of the Indian Institute of Pulses Research at Khurdha; Regional Center of Soil and Water Conservation, Sunabeda and Sisal Research Station at Bamra under Central Research Institute for Jute and Allied Fibres had also signed similar agreement. As per the agreement, OUAT along with the 11 Institutions will promote student supervision, collaborative teaching and allied academic activities and outreach of research and human resources development. The MoU was signed on the occasion of the Farmers Fair-2023 which is being organised at OUAT from 27-28 February, 2023.

